Introduction to Toyohashi Junior High School

Would you like to study together with friends at an evening junior high school?

What is the evening junior high school
like?

An evening junior high school is a junior high school
that starts in
the evening
where students can go to
every day.

You can also find classes
to learn Japanese
language!

I have never been to a junior high school
before. Can I still enroll at my age?

Of course
you can!

You can learn more about the evening
junior high school
by looking at this pamphlet!

Please try
to turn the page.

Let's turn the page
and read more!

Here's what an evening junior high school is like

Classes are held five days a week, from Monday to Friday.

Students learn the same subjects as those in daytime junior high schools.

Classes are run by certified teachers.

Upon completion of the classes, you will be considered having completed your junior high school education.

The following persons can enroll

Those who are over the age of compulsory education (15 years old), live or work in Aichi Prefecture, and meet any of the following criteria are eligible to enroll.

Those who have not graduated from an elementary or junior high school

Foreign nationals can also enroll

Those who have not received sufficient education and wish to repeat their studies

If you think you are one of those people, feel free to contact us.

Cost

Tuition and textbooks are free.

For more information, click here.

Fees for educational materials, participation in events, and school lunches must be paid.

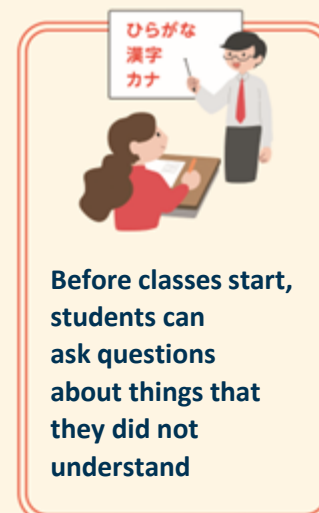

About time allotment

As with daytime junior high schools, in principle, students will attend classes for three years.

*This can be shortened or extended up to 6 years depending on the learning situation and other factors.

The daily class schedule is 4 periods (1 period: 40 minutes).
